LIKE NO OTHER STORE IN THE WORLD

Designer debuts, movie shoots and a visit from the Queen

In over a century as a style destination, Bloomingdale's has earned a reputation for fun, fashion and spectacular events while launching so many of the labels we love today.

It all started in 1872 when brothers Joseph and Lyman Bloomingdale opened a store on New York's Upper East Side. Hoop skirts were all the rage, and the brothers jumped on the trend. Soon, they were the talk of the town.

By 1886 they had a bigger location and a buying office in Paris, but it was in 1929 that the store moved into the flagship location that stands today. Bloomingdale's connected 10 buildings to fill an entire city block between 59th and 60th Streets and Lexington and Third Avenues. The spot was a transportation hub, which gave rise to the slogan "all cars transfer at Bloomingdale's." The glamorous limestone and black granite art deco façade became a fashion landmark.

From our New York headquarters, Bloomingdale's celebrated the best designers from all over the world, bringing Chanel, Giorgio Armani and Yves Saint Laurent to an adoring American audience, and giving career boosts to new talent like Ralph Lauren, Donna Karan, Calvin Klein, Zac Posen and Marc Jacobs. Whether it was Jackie O sipping champagne at our 100th birthday party, or Queen Elizabeth II visiting the store in 1976, Bloomingdale's was the international hub of celebrity style.

Just like the designers we adore, we never stop updating our look. Today you'll find us in Boston, Chicago, Miami, San Francisco, Atlanta—and as far away as Dubai. In our “fashion boutique” store in Soho you'll find selections for up-to-the-minute style, and on our beauty floors—like the iconic “BWay” at 59th Street—the party never stops. We look forward to a future like no other.
